

The Pit Stop

SCCA Southern Indiana Region Monthly Newsletter February 2011 Volume 61 Number 4

Hello SIR SCCA,

Every now and then, it almost seems like spring. The snow has finally melted and the days are farther and farther between that I've had to scrape frost from the windshield. Yours truly, Corey Krietenstein, Western Kentucky members Richard Hall and Andy Murrell all enjoyed beautiful spring weather at the Chumpcar race earlier this month at Rockingham, NC. We could not have asked for better weather on the first road rally of the season, the Davis-Hutchens "West Side Warm-Up", either. If you weren't at this rally, you missed a great time. I hope Ben and Mike put together another road rally in the future. Team Moore³ got to practice wrenching our Daewoo getting the car to the rally and putting the car through its paces getting through the rally. We're really looking forward to running this car from New York to New Orleans this June as part of the Street Safari BABE (Big Apple to Big Easy) Rally.

Patch Party is upon us. Make sure you show up either Sunday April 2 or Monday the 3rd for Patch Party numero uno, or Sunday, April 10 / Monday the 11th Patch Party part deux. As I hope you know by now, doing so will earn you one FREE competition run in EACH heat for every SIR autocross this year. Otherwise you'll feel real guilty hearing us tell you all about the hard work we did at the membership meeting April 12th.

Speaking of the membership meeting, April 12th, in keeping with the 2011 theme of new venues, we will be meeting at Turoni's North Main Street in Evansville. Note there are now 3 Turoni's locations. See www.turonis.com, or ask around if you're not sure which one to go to.

If you have input regarding our meeting venues, please just let me know.

See you soon!

Chris
